GOURASANA

The quotes in this booklet are excerpts from the book Breaking the Cycle of Birth and Death. The numbers at the end of each quote refer to the passage numbers in that book. Gourasana, a current-day Incarnation of God, spoke these words to a small group of people during the years 1987-1991, and they were meant for the world to hear.

From our limited understanding, we can only give you our best interpretation of what is an Incarnation of God manifesting in a body on Earth: It is not all of God, as all of God cannot fully enter a human body, but it is God's full presence, love, and power letting itself be known and felt through a body for a certain purpose at a certain time.

Gourasana's purpose in having come at this time is to assist people in rapid spiritual transformation: to break free in this lifetime. There is now a special power, assistance, and transformational energy directly available from the Source, the Eternal Golden One, God. It is possible to become fully self-realized, to achieve union with God, and to return Home if that is your desire.

FOREWORD

Gourasana has come to dispel the lies that are propagated on this earth that keep you from finding your original freedom – freedom from separation with God, other people, and your true self. This translates into freedom from so many negative emotions and binding illusions like heartache, fear, guilt, anger, and hatred that are running rampant within so many people.

What Gourasana is bringing is not about religion or worship. It is about finding the love and ecstasy that is within everyone. He is bringing in a power and guidance to connect you with that love.

If you read His words listening with your heart, simply allowing yourself to feel God's love and presence, you may find Gourasana's words to be very helpful in your forward movement toward God.

*You find the truth from direct experience, not from scripture or words. It is not the words that I am speaking that are critical;
it is not the words that I am speaking that will save you. The words merely give you a hint, an idea, some direction of where to focus to achieve the direct experience. Your faith will come from the direct experience.*

PRAYER

There is no power that God does not give. There is no prayer that God does not hear. 6

When you are lost, when you are confused and you do not understand what is happening, remember that prayer is a most powerful tool. No matter what your state, no matter what your situation, you can pray. 12

You can pray so deeply that your life becomes a prayer. Not words formed in your conscious mind but deep in your heart: a constant seeking, a constant asking, a constant desire to know the truth, a constant prayer to be free from the illusion that binds you. 13

Pray for the experience; pray that you will know the truth directly. 14

You can always pray. You can pray constantly to know the truth, to find the truth. How many will pray to the Lord and ask for His help? You will find your true power when you find the Lord, and you will never know your true power unless you find the Lord. 66

Become worthy. Become worthy by letting go of your ego. When you feel that power when helping another, rather than thinking that this power is coming from you, say a prayer. If you wish to address that power as the Lord, then you can say, “Lord, please come through more and help this person more.” Feel the compassion of the Lord. Feel the love of the Lord. Feel the power of the Lord. Pray that it will increase so that this person can be helped. Pray that you will disappear until it is just the Lord and the person. You become so egoless that who you think you are completely disappears. You become a transparent medium between the Lord and the person. Become worthy and do this. 293

Your desire for Me must become stronger than any other desire. It is not that suddenly all your other desires will stop. It is simply that they will weaken until your desire for Me is all there is. So if there is a desire that is in your way, an illusion that is particularly strong, then you may concentrate your prayers on this. Then you must be patient. It does not mean that you will be freed from that desire immediately, but it will weaken to the point where it no longer has control over your consciousness. This is true for everyone, whatever your main illusion is at present. Prayer is so powerful for removal of the illusion. It is a deep meditation in and of itself.

ILLUSION

Who you think you are is just an illusion. You must let go of that illusion. 10

When I say the illusion has to be given up, it does not mean that tomorrow you will just stop all your illusion and be in a full state of awareness. It does not work like that. This is not possible; you will create such havoc in your mind that you will ultimately end up in confusion, frustration, discouragement, and failure. 17

There is a part of you that is buried and forgotten. It is your true self – your true identity – and your true self knows where Home is. So there is a desire within everyone that remains unfulfilled. This desire and longing is to find your true Home. Nothing satisfies this desire; whatever you do on this plane of illusion will never satisfy this desire. It is like a pain and it never truly goes away. When you wake in the morning it is there, when you go to sleep it is there. And even while you are dreaming it is there. You do not know what this nagging, this urging, this desire for something else is all about. Most people are trying desperately to satisfy this desire, but nothing will satisfy it. It is like a dream from which you need to wake up. Until you wake up from this dream you will not be satisfied, because whatever happens in your dream, you will just be dreaming. The illusion is a very deep dream, and to wake up requires great effort. But it is possible; it can be done. 18

That you think you are so limited is one belief that must go. Don't you know that any limit is only part of this illusion? 20

You have formed an illusion of who you think you are. This illusion is all you know. It is a strong illusion. Even when you perceive it for the illusion it is, it will be very difficult to let go. Too long you have thought this illusion is who you are. We* pray your fear won't stop you! 39

* Gourasana is accompanied by a vast Heavenly Host, the true selves. The illustration on the cover shows one way that They appear. When speaking, Gourasana will sometimes say "We", "Us", and "Our". In these cases, He is referring to Himself along with the Heavenly Host.

You must let go of everything that is an illusion, and almost everything you know is an illusion. How can I take you from this plane if you will not let go? It is your desire to hang on, not My desire. You must let go. It is not possible if you do not let go. I will not force you to let go. I will not influence you other than what I am doing. Each one of you must do the work and let go. 40

To come to a state of full awareness means that your will and the will of the Lord are not different. You perfectly execute the will of the Lord because you are one with the Lord. The illusion is creating the separateness so there appear to be different wills. It is the illusion that is binding you, that is creating the separation, that is deceiving you into believing that your will and the will of the Lord are different. Letting go of your will means the will of your illusory self, not your true self. The will of the illusory self is born from the false ego, the illusory ego. Who you think you are – your personality, your mind, your body – is all an illusion. It must all be given up in order to leave this realm of illusion. 43

Do not be concerned with what others think. From their perspective of illusion, you may appear very foolish. You will be dedicating all your time to the pursuit of the intangible, when you could be doing so many other things to enjoy your life. Enjoyment is there, but the enjoyment comes from detaching from the illusion. You will derive the greatest pleasure, but first you must let go of the illusory pleasure. This does not mean all at once; it is in degrees. As you let go of the illusion, as your awareness increases, the true pleasure increases.

Do not waste your time trying to understand other realms. Explaining what is happening in this dense state of illusion is almost impossible with words. To describe the other realms is truly impossible! Concern yourself with the immediate problem.

51

Begin to see the power behind the doubt, how great it is. No matter how impressive or great your spiritual experiences have been, there are times when you wonder if any of it is even real. If nothing else, when the doubt comes, then appreciate the potency of the illusion. Understand that doubt is illusion. Begin to perceive the doubt more and more as part of the illusion. As you practice seeing the doubts, the illusion will actually begin to weaken, because from awareness you will be perceiving the illusion. With awareness look at the illusion. Look at the things that are getting in your way. Whatever happens, be it some occurrence in your daily activities or a disturbance of your mind, see that it is distracting you from the truth, and it is causing you to disbelieve. Observe it, and see how it is part of the illusion that is keeping you bound. 52

It is the purpose of the illusion to see that you do not get to the light. That is the nature of the darkness. It is a power, it is a force, and it is working against you. The illusion will only work against you when you let it, and you can only let it when you are unaware. So become aware of the illusion. 53

Leaving this plane of illusion is one of the hardest things to do. It requires the complete focus of every individual who wishes to leave. It must become everything to you in order to leave. 57

Do not let fear stand in your way. The fear is unavoidable. See yourself as separate from the fear. You will come to many points when you will feel the fear. Simply see it as part of the illusion, and it will weaken its hold on your awareness. 88

Everyone is doomed to suffer. Who does not suffer as they grow older? Look at the old people as their bodies begin to weaken and age. While young and in a relatively healthy state, people can sit back and pretend that they will not grow old and suffer. But as the organs begin to fail, as the brain begins to disintegrate, as real suffering and disease set in, those not on a spiritual path become devastated. The only way they can deal with old age and suffering is if they become mindless, unconscious, perhaps senile. The suffering has become too great for them to bear. You see the trick of the illusion? It is a trick. It is an illusion. Illusion means a trick. Of course most fall for the trick. Most fall for the illusion. They embrace the illusion. But for those on the spiritual path, the reality is that as they become older, they are becoming more aware and have attained more real happiness. Ecstasy is there. You can see with these aware people that even in the midst of so-called suffering, they are in states of ecstasy. 267

Another obstacle is that people want to take the illusory self and have that illusory self come to a state of awareness and become enlightened. But that is not possible. The illusory self cannot become enlightened because it is an illusion. All that can happen to the illusory self is that it will disappear. That is why you must let go of who you think you are. Once you begin to let go of the illusion of who you think you are, you will truly enter into the light more and more. The illusion will disappear, and you will come to know your true self. 273

The illusion is like a drug; it covers over the pain. So when the illusion is lifted, the pain is exposed. Everyone is suffering and there is so much pain. But when the illusion is dense and you are covered over, you are not even aware of your unhappiness. The initial stages of your awakening are very painful because underneath the surface of your illusion there has always been incredible pain. To be fully aware does not mean you are only fully aware of the love and light; it means that you are also aware of the pain and suffering. You cannot have one without the other. 342

DESIRE

Until you are carried away by the Lord, do not rest. Do not be complacent. Do not be satisfied to stay in illusion. 9

To repress material desires only creates another set of problems. To let go does not mean to repress. Do not make this mistake. True letting go will result in freedom, not repression. You must go within and search for the way to become free from what is binding you. You must do the work. 16

The separation has been your desire, and I have assisted in that desire. Now you desire to stop the separateness, and I am assisting you in that desire. Know that! 26

In everyone's heart practically from birth, there is a longing, a desire that is never quite fulfilled. This desire, this longing, is for the light, for the truth. You begin seeking from an early age to satisfy this desire in ways that will, of course, not satisfy you. So there is always a feeling of dissatisfaction in one's existence, a feeling that something is missing. You see, you are now existing in an alien place. It is a place that is foreign to your true self. It is My purpose in coming, it is My intention to show you what it is that you have been longing for, what it is that has been missing. 33

Do not make the mistake of waiting for consciousness in the future. You must have it now! 34

You have come to the gateway of the universe. You have seen it. And I will take you through that gateway. I have waited so long for you to come Home. You cannot imagine My desire. I have not forgotten you for a second. I am only concerned about you and I am determined; if you can also become determined, then everything is possible. 38

This is very important; I will only fulfill your desires. If your desire is to stay in illusion at death, then I will fulfill that desire. 41

You must open yourself up with incredible desire for the love, for the light, for the truth, and begin to move. Move at such a rapid rate that at the end of each day you can appreciate that you have moved. Say to yourself when you go to sleep: “Let go, give up. Let me surrender to the love and the light.” Have trust, have faith that the force that is moving you has no ill intent and is taking you to the love and the light. 48

The force that is controlling everything is not chaotic; it is in perfect order. The chaos lies within you. You are being guided. You are being taken to different places, put into different situations by your desire. And by the same desire you can become free of so many traps and illusions. 56

You should never become complacent in spiritual life – never satisfied until a state of full awareness has been reached. No matter how many realizations, no matter how many experiences, no matter how far you have come, no matter how much you are removed from the illusion, you must never stop. 68

Want God and nothing else. Want nothing else; then you will see Him. 72

A constant dissatisfaction with your awareness will help to move you further. If indeed you are in a state of light, then only the light will increase, and if you are in a state of illusion and darkness, it will propel you out of that state of darkness. Be dissatisfied with any state but full consciousness and full awareness. Make every second of your day a circumstance that will help you come to the light. 102

Desire is everything. If you desire to be totally free of illusion and enter into a state of total awareness, then it is like a prayer. We will immediately answer that prayer and begin to guide you to that state of total awareness. Prayer is the universal medium. Desire is like a prayer. Whatever you desire will be answered. So it is by your desire that everything is happening. 130

Desire to be free from this illusion, and then desire it more until you are consumed. If you come to a point where you have no other desire

but to find the love, the light, and the truth that is waiting for you, then consider yourself blessed, because that desire will guarantee that you will have what everyone is searching for. 148

Do not be discouraged, do not give up. As long as you continue trying, that very trying, whether your conscious mind can appreciate it or not, is manifesting direct growth simultaneously in your awareness. When your awareness begins to blossom, then your mind will begin to recognize it. 149

The secret is to continue to change, but instead of changing into another illusion, change into the light. Start changing into the truth. Instead of stepping into another role of illusion, try stepping into the light. It is not that you can totally stop the illusion and then totally be in the light, but it is an evolution that can move very quickly according to your desire. 210

This is possible for everyone. You only have to desire it. If you want it, then you can have it. There is assistance now coming into the planet that is very rare. This assistance has never been available in this way. 281

The main thing you need to remember is that you will succeed if it is your desire. If you want the love and the light, if you want to know the truth, then no matter how great the obstacle, you will succeed. It can be done. There is a way for everyone to be free of this illusion. 311

We are not just talking about another belief system that claims that if you mechanically follow certain rules, then at some point in the future you will achieve the love of God. If you begin to let go, within a very short period of time you can have ecstatic experiences and very practical, tangible growth in your awareness. We have seen some people who within a short period of time have experienced intense love of God, a love so intense that tears of joy are rolling down their faces while trembling in ecstasy. This extreme rate of growth is almost unheard of, very unusual. It is becoming possible for many to achieve states that are only described in books of great masters and saints. It is possible; you simply must have the desire. 311

TRUTH

The truth is something you experience and it is right here. It is all-pervasive. If you will just let down your barriers and resistance, then you will experience the truth. 8

You must open your mind and free yourself up to evolve on the path of awareness. The ego is afraid, because who you think you are must die for you to come to a state of full awareness. We are using the word “ego” to mean false self, a false personality. This must die for your true self, your true personality, to live. Presently your true self is lost and your false self is dominant. The ego does not have to die all at once; it can go in degrees. Remember when I speak of ego, I am speaking of the false self. 19

The children can move very quickly. Teach them the truth. Show them the truth. Show them what is not the truth. Let them remain free. Do not make the mistake of so many parents who say, “You must do this.” When you give an absolute, first examine it for yourself and see if it is in fact something they “must do”. You will see that most of the rules and regulations are coming from an illusion. 128

You must always remember that it is you yourself that must find the truth. You must rely on your own awareness to go within and to experience the truth directly. 146

The true communication is within your hearts, and you must learn to listen ultimately to this. 195

TRUST AND FAITH

Listen. Listen carefully. Do not listen just with your mind, which can only hear the words, but listen with your entire being. Open your heart. Be receptive to the truth. Lower your barriers. Do not resist. Although the path is hard and filled with pain, the most glorious existence awaits you. If there were another way I would tell you. You must trust when times become difficult. You must trust when you do not know if you will be able to tolerate much more. You must trust that it was meant to be. You must have faith. 3

Lost you have been for so long. But now we will all go to places undreamed of and your suffering will fall away. You only need trust. You see, you do know everything already. 21

It is not suffering that awaits you! You must increase your faith to go through the unpleasantness. You must have the courage and faith to go through these trials to come Home. 170

At times I may appear harsh to some of you. Know now that My only desire is to have you with Me. My longing for you is great. You see, you cannot remember when we became separate; but that is something I am aware of, and I have felt every second that we have been apart. 27

You cannot sit in illusion and understand the true realm. The only way you will understand it is by letting go of the illusion and entering into the true realm of existence. So you must have faith and trust to do that. Your faith and trust will increase as your awareness increases. 275

True understanding will come from your heart. True understanding is beyond the words. That is the real communication. 61

Listen to this carefully. If you can gather all of your energy, all of your consciousness, and direct it toward Me, then I can very easily take you into My arms, and you will be Home. I am awaiting your arrival. When will you come? 24

It is beyond meditation. It has come to movement. It is time to let the energy move you as it has never moved you before. Just let it move you; become one with the energy. 249

The assistance going on that you cannot see is the most important assistance. 256

LOVE

All that awaits you is unlimited love and light, splendor, glory and beauty beyond your comprehension, ever increasing, unlimited. And all that separates you from this is the illusion. 5

Love itself is beyond your mind's comprehension. 11

The fear is all coming from you. Look beyond your fear and you will see My protection, My guidance, and My love for you. 22

The time of fear is an excellent opportunity. It is so tangible, is it not? The fear is something you can hold onto. So hold on; and while you are holding onto this tangible object, look beyond. Don't be discouraged, as there will be many times when you will look and see, "Oh yes, He is there," and the fear will diminish and disappear. Then you will only see the love. 23

Expand your consciousness beyond your limited time sphere. There is an eternal side of you. Gradually focus your attention there. Do it gently, do it with love. Take care of yourself, love yourself as We love you.

Have you noticed that sometimes the suffering never seems to end? This is no meaningless cruelty. Everything, everything that you experience on this plane is turning into love on Our plane. If you would only go deeper into what you call suffering and into its most unbearable moments, you will come to a point when you will see only love. I will say this so many times and someday you will hear it. There is nothing separating you from a state of unlimited love and joy except your fear. Why will you not let go? Fear! Why will you not give up? Fear! What are you protecting? What you are holding onto is all an illusion, and that illusion will go with the fear. I am here to tell you that you will all go through great difficulty, and We love you for it. Why do you think We have come? While you are feeling the pain and suffering, if you will just look at that moment, you will be surprised to see there is the love, and it has always been there. It will become easier and easier for you to find it.

Those of you that say that you can't have endless love have never experienced it. I am here to tell you that it is waiting for you, and We are going to show you where it is! 30

Just as a child can tolerate the worst fears when his hand is in his father's hand, and he knows his father will protect him, so when you face your fears, know that I am there protecting you, and there will come no harm. Try to feel the love and protection that is surrounding you, that is within you, and face your fears. 31

Remember I am always in your heart. Any time you turn your attention within, I am there in My full power. How glorious it will be when there will not be a separation, not for a second, not for an instant. It will be unlimited ecstasy and love. See how your true love for each other increases as it increases for Me. 32

You must go to that place where you feel the fear. You must look at the fear. When it is gone and there is only love, then it will be possible to evolve out of this plane in this lifetime. 35

Hear not My words so much but feel My desire. That is the communication. I am calling you. Come here to this realm of existence. It is a love you want so badly. It is a love that is so fulfilling that once you have it, you need nothing else. 37

Put the fear in front of you, and let it become even more unbearable. Let that separateness take you over. Observe it, and while you are observing, it will vanish. You will see only the love. Do not hide from your fears. This is what prolongs the problem. It is all so gloriously simple. 42

Your true self is not a being like any you have experienced. There is no question of not liking yourself; you will have nothing but unlimited love for yourself. 108

Go to your depths. Do not lead a shallow existence. Come with Us. It is a place of unlimited love and light. 114

When one leaves this plane of illusion and comes into the light, it is a time of great celebration and joy; there is an outpouring of love that is far beyond your comprehension. Don't you know that it is just light and love that is waiting for you? Please come with Us. Go inside now. It is within all of you. What you may have perceived as imagination is the only reality. Come here and feel the love. Directly experience the love that is waiting for you. 134

While you have forgotten Me, I have never forgotten you. My love for you is constant and unchanging and ever increasing, even while you pay little attention or do not care for My love. I am anxiously waiting for you to come within to this realm of unlimited love and light. It is your true Home. Why won't you come here? Why won't you take what is being offered? Do not cling onto the illusion any longer. Let it go. 147

FREEDOM

If someone truly wishes to leave this plane of illusion in this lifetime, then you do not need to be his guardian because he will see to it that he leaves. 59

As individuals, you must have faith in yourself. If it is in your heart to leave this plane of illusion, then the way will be shown. Nothing is going to stop you if you truly want to leave. Nothing is going to stop you! 60

The changes that everyone needs to make are as individualized as the people, highly individualized. What everyone needs to do to break free is very different. But in one sense it is all the same; it is just an illusion. You just have to let go of the illusion. Eventually you will have to give up everything, but what giving up everything actually means is that you give up the illusion of it. 63

The main thing is that you do not give up. If you do not give up, then you will succeed. 64

To leave this plane of illusion means to frequently enter into a state that is not so pleasant and that unfortunately requires more difficulty than if you did not do it. So while everyone is looking for less difficulty, to break free you may find more difficulty. That is the way of the path. I can tell you that no one has come to a state of full awareness easily. It is very, very difficult, and it is based upon your desire. 65

The Lord is a reality. To be free from the illusion means that you are with the Lord. You cannot truly be free from the illusion and not have a connection with the Lord, although there are different degrees in the relationship along the way. Once you come to a state of full awareness, you are fully aware of the Lord. When I speak of letting go and moving, then automatically that connection with the Lord will begin to come. Whatever way you approach the Supreme, you are going to begin to feel that personal relationship; though you may not understand what is going on, you are beginning to feel it. And because of the overwhelming nature of the energy of the Lord, it may come as fear. It may come and it may feel like the worst thing you have ever felt, because it is a total threat to your illusory self. It feels like death, because serious progress in the spirit means that the material, the illusion, is going to die. This is one reason it does not feel very good at times, because there is always something that is dying. You are letting go of it and it is dying. 67

Your experiences will never be the same because you are always changing; the circumstances are always changing. Whenever you go into meditation, you must always remain open to how it is going to be because it can be so entirely different every time. Although certain experiences may come, generally it is just work and endeavoring, and this may not be pleasant. To become free, the work and endeavor has to go on. If you endeavor only for the pleasurable aspects, then it is indeed a trap. You must be willing to accept everything that is happening to you to move you forward. The focus must be on becoming free from illusion. That must be the focus, not the experience. The experiences will come and will go, both good and bad experiences. You must not become attached to the experience. 69

As you become free from the illusion in one area, simultaneously the illusion in other areas becomes less dense, less binding. 213

Automatically as the illusion goes away, your desire for the activity will go away, and you will be free from the illusion. 327

The true reality is there is no suffering. Suffering is just an illusion, and it is only in illusion that you can suffer. That is why the saints and masters that have come to a state of full awareness truly do not suffer anymore. The suffering is an illusion. The sooner you can free yourself from illusion, the sooner you can become free from the suffering. By holding onto the illusion, you hold onto the suffering. Both happiness and suffering on this plane are the same thing. 268

The suffering is just an illusion, and you will become free from the suffering when you become free from the illusion. 269

Those who run away from their internal work because they are afraid of the suffering are actually running into the arms of suffering. 270

It is of your own free will that you choose to be either in the light or in the illusion. 277

Every single living entity in this cosmos is fully worthy of achieving a state of full awareness and love of God. 291

The end result will be there, and that is everything! No matter what price you pay, it is worth it. Well worth it. It is beyond price. 300

This is a very hard thing to understand, I know, but it is true: The attachment to suffering is greater than the attachment to pleasure. So people do things to ensure that suffering will continue. Just see the insanity of this plane. People are attached to their own suffering and are creating it. You can begin turning the tide. You can begin doing specific things to become enlightened, to experience the love, to become free from the illusion, to become free from suffering. You can begin to take specific action in order to develop this awareness and end suffering. 313

The path of self-realization is not easy by any means, so I advise everyone who is undertaking this awakening to take care of themselves and each other. At times you will need to be easy on yourself and know when to relax the effort. You need to know when to rest and how to take care of your body. Create an existence that is as peaceful and free from anxiety as possible. In other words, breaking free from this illusion must be your main endeavor, and everything must be designed to support this endeavor. If you wish to come to a state of full awareness, that is how it should be done. 346

It is another misconception to think that in a state of full awareness you will walk around as if on a drug and think that everything is fine. In a state of full awareness, you will have love and compassion and want to help others. 357

Giving up your attachments and letting go require a tremendous effort and dedication to your inward journey of healing. It is not possible to truly let go if you are in a state of denial or repression. True letting go results in freedom. 382

When you come to a state of knowing, there will be no more need for words. Then the books can be thrown away. You will simply know, and the knowing is beyond the words.

The inspiration in this booklet is an invitation to anyone wanting to return to the endless love of God. Having the desire and making the commitment to take that journey is the first step. Finding the support, direction, and guidance necessary to succeed in your spiritual quest is the next one.

Gourasana spoke the words in this booklet at the time He was preparing Kalindi, The Lady, and a small group of others to bring forth a practical spiritual path that would translate His words into action. And so He inspired the creation of Miracle of Love, which is committed to the support of those seeking love of God and full union with God – to break the cycle of birth and death in this lifetime.

Miracle of Love® is a nonprofit, non-denominational organization led by people who are experiencing deep and profound spiritual transformation under the guidance of Kalindi and The Lady. Through Gourasana's assistance, Kalindi and The Lady have fully awakened and are here to help others to also find that freedom and love of God. Kalindi and The Lady founded The Path of Two MastersSM, a spiritual path rooted in helping people find more of the love of God. For those that are desiring full union, the center of this Path is a path to ultimate freedom.
